Lovely Books for Adults

Dear friends and colleagues,

Fun, young and tempting: from scouting charming bloggers and working with professional food photographers, designers and stylists, our Hölker Verlag editorial team has an eye for bringing contemporary cooking to the page. Combined with our love of beautiful presentation, we are extraordinarily proud that professional recognitions for our titles continue to grow. Also again this year, Coppenrath Verlag is ranked among the top gift book publishers in Germany for our successful series that combine humour, design and inspiring texts no matter the occasion.

Be they our book ranges for children or our adult side as represented in this catalogue, our Coppenrath-like eye for unique and beautiful books made with a passion continues as the central objective of our publishing house. Please contact us about bringing these lovely books to your market.

Happy browsing and bon appétit!

Christiane Leesker and Vanessa Jansen travelled to Beaujolais and south Burgundy for the grape harvest. Their book brings together simple recipes from an almost forgotten cuisine: fresh salads, hearty stews and tempting desserts. Late-summer photos, personal stories and the wonderful hospitality of the French wine-growers make this book a unique treasure for wine-lovers and fans of the French way of life.

While at the Technical University in Münster, Christiane Leesker spent a year abroad in France. She was a cookbook editor for several years, before becoming a freelance graphic designer in 2002, designing and writing her own cookbooks.

After training as a photographer, Vanessa Jansen worked as an advertising photographer in Spain, before moving to Münster. She has been accompanying Christiane on research trips for new cookbooks since 2010, photographing delicious food and capturing special moments in her pictures.

Men and yoga? Until now, they've been opposites like football and ballet or woodwork and embroidery. But no longer! Twenty simple exercises show HIM how easy it is to build yoga into his daily routine – whether it's starting the day with coffee and greeting the sun, or practising constancy to her with the diamond pose, this book is guaranteed to develop those laughing muscles!

Katja Reider was born in 1960. She majored in German and media studies, and has been working as an author in Hamburg since 1994. She has written over 100 books for children and young people, as well as many successful gift books. She lives in Hamburg with her husband, two children and their little dog.

Jutta Brücker was born in 1970, in Münsterland. She studied product and graphic design in Münster and illustration in Hamburg; she is published to great acclaim both in Germany and abroad. The co-creator of the famous couple Rosalie & Trüffel, she is mother to a young daughter and lives in Hamburg.

Two world-famous lovers are back with Coppentrath!

Rosalie and Trüffel are delighted: it's nearly Christmas! The celebration of love! But before it arrives, they have a lot to do: finding presents, baking biscuits, crafting, decorating, writing cards – and not forgetting to leave time for contemplation. But when the world's cutest couple celebrate Christmas, they're not short of romance, either. Rosalie and Trüffel even make the snow melt!
